Join us to the Kings residence, Drottningholm Palace, to explore a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Leave the city’s stress behind and head out to the Swedish countryside. Your private guide and driver are waiting in your lobby, ready to take you out to the outskirts of the city. Drottningholm Palace is home of the Swedish Royal family and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Not only is this 400-year old palace one of the 10 palaces that the Royal Family of Sweden have at their disposal, it’s located right by lake Mälaren and has a gigantic “backyard”.

Here we also find one of Europe’s best preserved 18th century theatres, Drottningholm Court Theatre. It’s a unique attraction with its original scenery, 200-year old stage machinery and interior decoration virtually untouched by the passage of time.

Have you heard of the Vasa Museum? Those who have been never forget it. Salute & Salvation is a celebration of the most astounding event in Swedish History. It is a true WOW experience and something you won't want to miss!

In 1628, a big salute was fired to celebrate the maiden voyage of the great Vasa ship. In 1957, the same vessel was applauded as it was salvaged from the bottom of the sea. What happened in the years in between? Salute the Vasa Ship with us and hear all about it’s salvation.

In the 1620s, the Swedish king Gustav II Adolf felt like he didn’t have a big enough a ship to showcase his greatness. As he’s enemies called him “the lion of the North”, he couldn’t go to war with a small sailboat. The pressure was on and the Vasa ship was born. His precious ship was however too good to be true and sank on it’s maiden voyage.

Salute & Salvation doesn’t only take you on a voyage of the Swedes’ failures and success stories, it also shows you around town. Discover the city districts of Södermalm, Norrmalm, Djurgården, Östermalm and Gamla stan. Gamla Stan or Old Town as we would say in English, is where everything once began. It was from here the Vasa ship took off on that fateful afternoon in 1628.

As we end our tour, we promise your heart will salute the city of Stockholm.

As you sit back and relax we zoom through Stockholm on Wheels. From trendy Södermalm and cozy Old Town to posh Östermalm and lush Djurgården, you see it all on this bus tour of Stockholm. Which will be your favorite part?

Put your seatbelt on and hit the road! You are about to discover Stockholm on wheels with your own personal driver and guide. Zooming through the city, see the colorful city districts that make Stockholm the capital of Scandinavia.

Norrmalm is the heart of the city, it’s the focal point of modern Stockholm with great shopping streets like Drottninggatan, architectural masterpieces like the City Hall and the power centre of Sweden, the Parliament.

When the style of the architecture changes, your passing by Gamla stan, the Old Town. Leaning buildings, narrow alleyways and the Royal Palace are all points to check off your bucket-list.

The trendy and bohemian area of the city, Södermalm, offers small wooden houses from the 1700s, fashion, design and great local bars. Not to forget - stunning views of the city!

The opposite to the hipster island you just left is Östermalm, the fashionable neighborhood with stately apartment buildings, fantastic architecture and scenic walkways. Stockholm on wheels takes you pass the Royal Dramatic Theatre, the posh Strandvägen and leads you directly to our last city district.

Djurgården is the leisure paradise of the city and is better known as the outdoor recreation center for city locals. The main street is lined with many of
